54 TAKING TESTS FOR MINE FOREMEN IN NINTH DISTRICT

Seven Men Who File Applications Fail to Appear at Parochial Hall.

NUMBER ABOVE YEAR AGO

Some Are Said to Have Been Detained at Plants on Account of Coal Strike Activities or United Mine Workers' Liability List for the Bosses.

The annual examinations for mine foremen and assistant mine foremen in the Ninth Bituminous District opened this morning at the Parochial Hall. Although 61 applications for the tests had been filed seven men did not appear and 54 are taking the examinations.

The examinations during the first two days will be for second grade certificates and on Thursday for first grade. If an applicant desires a first grade certificate he must make a percentage of 90 on the second grade questions and also the same on the first grade. If however an applicant makes 80 per cent in the second grade questions and passes a satisfactory oral examination he will receive a second grade certificate.

The class this year is larger than that which took the tests last year when 43 reported on the opening day.

Applications by men desiring to take the boss tests total 80. Last year there were 68 showing another substantial increase.

Some of the men unable to be present for the examinations today were detained by the coal strike. In some instances they are acting mining foremen at non-union mines and were needed about the works, being sent to leave.

The tests are being conducted by S. H. Hall mine inspector for the Ninth District, J. W. Greaves of Dunbar and James Conway of Leavenworth. The latter two have been on the board for years.

The men taking the examinations are:

APPOMATTOX DAY OBSERVED BY CIVIL WAR VETERANS

The fifty-seventh anniversary of the surrender of General Robert E. Lee, April 9, 1865 at Appomattox Court House to General Grant, was fittingly celebrated yesterday afternoon by William F. Kurtz Post No. 104 Grand Army of the Republic, with a banquet served at 4 o'clock in the diningroom of the First Baptist Church. Women of the congregation had charge and the veterans were laut in their praise of the capable manner in which the banquet was arranged and served. A special effort was made to see that every course was sumptuously served. The menu consisted of the many good things which help to make a real chicken dinner. The room was prettily decorated for the occasion. Large American flags were artistically arranged about the room, while Easter flowers, with a large basket of tulips forming the attractive centerpiece, adorned the table. The favors were small-American flags. Commander W. P. Clark was toastmaster and brief but interesting talks, befitting the occasion, were made by Rev. Dr. Bennett W. Hutchinson, Rev. J. S. Showers and Rev. E. H. Stevens. Commander Clark asked each of the veterans where they were at the time of the proclamation of the surrender and what they did. Each responded. Some were at the place of the surrender, others were in Washington, D. C., and others at Camp Parole or Atlanta, Ga. The observance of Appomattox Day is one of the most important events of the year to the veterans and yesterday's celebration will be remembered as one of the most enjoyable gatherings of the kind in the history of the post. Even the weather man favored the comrades, the ideal day making it possible for the oldest members of the post to be present.

Comrades present were J. Leslie Francis of Portopoli; A. R. Brashier of Vanderbilt; George W. Ingrie of Wilkinsburg; Commander W. P. Clark, Colonel James J. Barnhart, William Atch, William Deal, Clark Collins, John P. Dunham, A. S. Hudock, E. G. Giles, Israel Miller, John Robinson, W. H. Shaw, Lyman Strickler, Adam Swink, Charles H. Ticks, and J. E. Jones, Rev. Dr. Bennett W. Hutchinson, Rev. E. H. Stevens and Rev. J. S. Showers, honorary members of the post were guests.

Bible Class Meets.

Mrs. J. W. Suder had charge of the devotional exercises at the regular meeting of the Deborah Bible Class of the First Presbyterian Church held last evening in the church. An interesting paper on "Mary Magdalene" was read by Mrs. J. W. Ward. The meeting was well attended.

Flute Recital.

The pupils of Miss Mercedes Gladwin and Miss Josephine Kincaid gave a piano recital last evening at the Gladwin home in South Eighth street, Greenwood. About a hundred guests, including parents, and friends of the participants in the program, were present. Each number was rendered in a delightful manner. The program was as follows: Tarentale, Lillian Link; Dance on the Green, Gertrude Isley; Playing Tug, Grace Robier; Just We Two, duet, Clara Nelle Shober; The Forest, Helen Stoner; Old Folks at Home, Edgar Capella; Hunt of the Fairies, Velma Ray; Dancing Waves, Camille Weaver; Salute to the Colors, Gladys Wagner; First Rose Waltz, Martha Boyd; Toy Soldiers March, Billy Yard; Come Thru the Rain, duet, Rita and Grace Rothe; Dixie Land, Mary Morris; On the Ranch, Dorothy Hoover; In the Rustle Swing, Emily Highbee; Four Leaf Clover, Helen Boyd; Meditation, Edna McManus; The Mocking Bird, Mason Whelpler; The Zoo, duet, Dorothy Newell and Camille Weaver; reading, Miss Erick; Story at Twilight, Kathleen

When "No" Is Good Sometimes Isn't It Better At All Times?

A great many people have learned to say "No" to tea or coffee at noon and at night—learned it at the cost of jumping nerves and disturbed digestion.

Thousands of others who passed through that stage have learned to say "No" to tea and coffee all the time, and have found a most satisfactory "Yes" in Postum.

Postum's full, rich flavor delights the taste and meets all the demands for a hot, mealtime drink, and it contains no element that can harm anybody. Even little children may share in the delights of a hot cup of Postum with any meal.

Whether or not the tea or the caffeine in coffee has begun to serve warnings on you, you can profit by the experience of others and by the information which any doctor can give you—and find charm without harm in Postum.

Suppose you make the test for ten days, with well-made Postum, and compare the "feel" with your former experience with tea and coffee.

Your grocer sells both forms of Postum: Instant Postum (in individual packages) in the shape of the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

THE COAL STRIKE AND PEANUT POLITICS

The coal strike is affording some of the peanut politicians in Congress an opportunity to make capital of the kind they feel they will need in the forthcoming campaign for re-election.

The assignment of a committee to conduct an investigation of the coal industry, which is about No. 331 in the series of so-called inquiries Congress has conducted in coal and other industries in recent years, is the occasion this type of representative has been seeking. The committee in charge of the present investigation is composed of several pronounced pro-labor members, one avowed Socialist and others whose views on economic questions, such as is involved in the present strike, are about as unsound as it is possible to be in order to come under the designation of being views. These committee members, like all other Congressmen, are candidates for re-election next fall. They realize that more depends upon the political work they do between now and election than the record of what they have done in Congress, to enable them to secure another term. Accordingly they are seizing every opportunity to make an appeal to some class of voters.

Apparently they regard bailing the coal operators as about the best means of gaining public favor at this time. Their conduct of the present investigation proves that very conclusively. Instead of giving honestly and fairly to learn the real facts of the coal industry, they are conducting examinations of witnesses along such lines as offer them the best opportunity of throwing all the blame for the present strike on the operators. Much is being made of the refusal of the operators to meet in a four-state conference to negotiate a wage scale that the miners' union can then force upon all other mining sections of the United States, but no effort is made to correctly inform the public of the fact that the operators in every mining district have been, and are now, ready and willing to negotiate a scale that will equitably meet the conditions peculiar to their respective districts.

Each member of the committee during its sittings has a union representative at his elbow to coach him in the examination of witnesses. Those examinations do not uncover the real facts but are so conducted as to give the public a false and misleading conception of conditions confronting the coal mining industry. Emphasis is being placed upon the demand of the miners' union for the nationalization of the coal industry and it is made to assume such an aspect as to appear as the sentiment of the public. Instead of the visionary scheme of the radical element in the mine workers' leadership. Much is being made of the attitude of Senator Borah, who favors government ownership of utilities, but nothing is said about the certainty of a great, or even greater, failure following government ownership of coal mines than resulted from the attempt of McAdoo to eliminate the economic evils in the railroad situation by the magic of federal control.

Even Secretary of Labor Davis has shown himself unable to be impartial in his relation to the present situation in the coal industry. He, like the Congressional committee, has ignored completely the fact that every district employing union labor has expressed a willingness to meet the representatives of its workers in the negotiation of wage agreements. But he has charged the operators in rather vigorous terms with refusing to meet the representatives of the miners in a joint conference, after the miners themselves disrupted the four-state scheme of wage-fixing when they forced separate state revisions of the day labor rate after the joint Interstate panel committee had refused to modify the contract entered into in 1920. In other words, the terms of the award of the United States Bituminous Coal Commission.

The public has the right to expect fairness and impartiality from government officials, but when a political campaign is only a few months ahead it is not surprising that the exigencies of politics outweigh the rights of the public, no matter how gross the injustice that may be done.

The size of the class taking the examination for mine foremen's certificates makes it appear that the possibility of the coke region going out of the mining business is not as hopeless as the visiting organizers would have the public believe.

The union organizers who are making claims that their organization is entitled to the credit of introducing the principle of compensation for injuries received in employment, have chosen the wrong place to advance their arguments, as well as being much behind the times. Workers in the Connellsville region were receiving compensation benefits about six years before the miners' union or any other organization began to advocate the passage of such a law.

If the sympathetic strike of the coke workers continues all summer, as is being predicted, most persons in this vicinity will have a surplus of daylight to spend instead of the necessity to save it.

THE FAIRY TALE MAN

He wasn't so successful in the busy market place. The thoughtless used to whisper that he couldn't go the pace. He was small, built like a battle; he was good as a child. He was very much of manner and his speech was always mild. But when youngsters gathered round him he was never known to fail to hold their rapt attention with a wondrous tale.

Some folks are so hard up for stories they're miserably afraid to tell them. They didn't know he wasn't making money in the town.

They loved him though he hadn't any ability to work around. He could lead them on adventures down the happiest of trails.

And was richer than a banker when it came to fairy tales.

They couldn't see his weakness, they could only see his mind.

Which was storied with fairy stories of a moon entrancing kind.

The grown-ups called him simple, but the children looked around him for the wonders that he knew;

And they idolized old William, poor or pure and sometimes frail.

Who knew better than their fathers how to tell a fairy tale.

Perhaps he was a failure. It is not for me to say.

No one round of duties in an easy-going way.

He bore no heavy burdens and his purse was always slim.

But the children idolized him and they saw no fault in him.

Though some say his days were wasted, in my mind the thought prevails.

That God made Uncle William just to tell those fairy tales.

MANY ATTEND SERVICES FOR ROBERT SKEMP

Wheels of Scottsdale Industry Stand for Minute During Funeral.

SCHOOLS ARE DISMISSED

Special to The Courier

SCOTTDALTE April 11—Scottdale yesterday afternoon paid tribute to the memory of one of its distinguished citizens, Robert Skemp, when for a minute during the funeral service at the home in Loucks avenue the wheels of the industrial plants of the town were stillled. The public schools, in which Mr. Skemp was keenly interested, were dismissed for the afternoon.

A throng of relatives, friends and associates of Mr. Skemp assembled at his home for the service. Rev C C Rich, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Rev W G Russell of Philadelphia, a former pastor, conducted the services. The pallbearers were officials of the church. They were J T Sayers, John M Stanner, J E Howell, C P Overholst, A L Rosensteel, Arthur Snyder and W F Stauford. The Masons were in charge of the funeral.

Kellogg's Bran is nature's own relief from constipation!

You must not take chances with constipation when statistics tell you that nine-tenths of all sickness can be traced to it. You must get permanent relief; you must drive constipation out of your system!

Realize that pills and cathartics, at best, can only afford temporary relief, while they are irritating to the intestinal tract.

Now—compare the action of these pills and cathartics with the natural and wholesome effect of Kellogg's Bran, cooked and crumbled. Shekler knows of no such wonderful appetizer and purifier of the bowels as Kellogg's Bran. It is simply nature's food. Bran's effect is certain and rapid, permanent if at least two tablespoonsfuls are eaten daily. Chronic cases should eat as much more as is necessary for results. Taken consistently, Kellogg's Bran will drive constipation from the system. Your physician will endorse the use of Kellogg's Bran for constipation!

Take Kellogg's Bran either as a delicious and nutritious cereal, or spray it over your favorite cereals. Eat it among other foods which are more appealing by its natural flavor. Kellogg's Bran pancakes are the best you ever tasted. Use it in fruit bread, bread or gravy, in soups, puddings etc. (Keep it on package.)

The big bag is a joy to Kellogg's Bran and your system quickly gets it at your grocery.

P.S.—Pimples are caused by constipation. Kellogg's Bran will take them up and also free your breath from intestinal odors.

SIX-OUNCE EGG LAID BY HEN OF GIBSON CITIZEN

SOUTH CONNELLSVILLE April 11.—J M Hellin of First street found an egg of unusual size in his chicken coop on Saturday evening. The egg measured seven inches in circumference one way and eight and one-half inches the other and weighed six ounces. It over-weighted two of the largest eggs that could be found in J J Evans' grocery store. It is now on display in the window of the Evans store.

Street Commissioner Gus McPharney with a few men to help him is busy cleaning out the ditch that runs parallel with South Pittsburg street between Allegheny avenue and J J Evans' store. This is one of the worst places in the borough.

Stanley Evans has received the new racing body for his chassis and will soon have it ready for use. He is going to paint the racer white.

Street Inspector William McCormick of Connellsville had a number of laborers repairing the bump on the south side of the Crescent bridge yesterday afternoon. This place has always been annoying to persons in drive over as they have to slow up and almost stop before hitting the bump or they are likely to break a spring.

(Copyright by ELEANOR H. PORTER)

I told Mother that she (Cousin Grace) was quite old, but not so old as Aunt Jane. And she is pretty and everybody loves her. I think even Father likes to have her around better than he did his own sister Jane for he sometimes stays around quite a lot now—after meals and in the evening I mean. And that's what I told Mother. Of course, he still likes his stars the best of anything but not quite as well as he used to maybe—not to give all his time to them.

I forgot to say that Father is going to let me go back to school again this year ahead of his time, just as he did last year. So you see really I'm here only a little bit of a while as it is now and it's no wonder I keep forgetting I am Mary.

ONE WEEK LATER

Things are awfully funny here this time. I wonder if it's all Cousin Grace that makes it so. Anyhow she's just as different or different can be from Aunt Jane. And things are different everywhere.

Why, I forgot half the time that I'm here. Honestly, I do. I try to be Mary. I try to move quietly, speak gently, and laugh softly just as Mother told me to. But before I know it I'm acting natural again—just like Marie, you know.

And I believe it is Cousin Grace. She never looks at you in Aunt Jane's I'm amazed at you way. And she laughs herself a lot and sings and plays too—real pretty lively things, not just hymn tunes. And the house is different. There are four geraniums in the dining room window and the parlor is open every day. The wax flowers are there, but the hair wreath and the coffin plate are gone. Cousin Grace doesn't dress like Aunt Jane either. She wears pretty white and blue dresses and her hair is curly and fluffy.

I think all this is why I keep for getting to be Mary. But of course I understand that Father expects me to be Mary and so I try to remember.

TWO WEEKS LATER

I understand it all now—everything why the house is different and Father and everything. And it is Cousin Grace. And it is a love story.

Father is in love with her.

Now I guess I shall have something for this book!

It seems funny now that I didn't think of it at first. But I didn't—not until I heard Nellie and her dad talk about it. Nellie said she wasn't the only one in the house that was going to get married. And when he asked her what she meant she said it was Dr. Anderson and Mrs. Whitney. That anybody could see it that wasn't blind as a bat.

My but wasn't I excited? I just guess I was. And of course I saw that I had been blind as a bat. But I began to open my eyes after that, and watch—not disagreeably you know, but just glad and interested and on account of the book.

And I saw.

That Father stayed in the house a lot more than he used to.

That he actually asked Cousin Grace and me to play for him several times.

That he went with us to the Sunday school picnic. (I never saw Father at a picnic before and I don't believe he ever saw himself at one.)

That—oh, I don't know, but a whole lot of little things that I can't remember, but they were all unmistakable very unmistakable. And I wondered when I saw it all that I had been as blind as a bat before.

When I wrote Mother I told her all about it—the signs and symptoms I mean and how different and thawed out Father was. And I asked if she didn't think it was me too. But she didn't answer that part. She didn't write much anyway. It was an awfully snappy letter, but she said she had a headache and didn't feel at all well. So that was the reason probably, why she didn't say more about Father's love affairs. I mean the only girl who was glad she was sure if Father had found an estimable woman to make a home for him and who hoped they'd be happy. Then she went on talking about some-

H. D. Barclay, 126 W. Main St., prop. shoe repair shop, Connellsville says:

I had a severe attack of lame duck and pains across my loins. I could hardly straighten up and I couldn't rest well nights. The kidney secretions were highly colored and contained sediment. I used a box of Dr. Doan's Kidney Pills and they acted promptly in regulating the action of my kidneys, clearing the kidney secretions and alleviating the lameness and soreness. ### ST. VINCENT TEAM WINS CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE CITY LEAGUE

Leisenring Passers Are Victorious by One Point Margin.

FINAL SCORE IS 29-28

By James M. DiTuccio
Sporting Editor

Displaying the same superior team play which enabled it to defeat the Casey Club last week, the St. Vincent Club quieted its cresting last night, fought its way to the front again and defeating the locals 29 to 28, ascended into the top of the champion of the Connellsville City Bush League.

It was a great game. This tells everything but it would be hard to describe how the two teams waged battle back and forth for the 40 playing minutes. Never was the excitement of slanting and at times the spectators became tense as the players fought desperately for an opportunity to score.

The Casers had an opportunity to tie the score with less than a minute to play. The St. Vincent team was fouled and Campbell stepped to the foul line. Not a soul carried across the big bar to help him out of the ball for the attempt. The previous and at one time by him had resulted in clean baskets, the ball never touching the rim in the crisis, however the toss was not strong enough and the ball struck the rim. A few seconds later the game had ended.

The Purchals Hall, where the championship was fought out, rang out with cheers of the Leisenring contingent for a long time. The St. Vincent congregation was not lacking in courage and this crowd did not endear itself without its own feelings. The final whistle had hardly blown until the throng rushed into the floor and embraced each other.

It was another hard blow to the Casey Club in the three times the St. Vincent team has been played. The Casers, with strength and at center by the addition of Lowmyer, a girt and his disposal of the worthless score, four goals won in the first half.

From the point of view of the first half, it was probably the best played football in the city. The ball was pinned in the second half and a dead coal was scored in it by A. Rusinko of St. Vincent, after the third quarter began shortly from a kick-off of a snappy pass from Alexander. The Casers were not able to score a single field goal in the half, one which would have won the game for the team.

Dan Henry captain of the Casers and a brother of Jim Henry, the coach, displayed some real foul shooting ability in the first half.

Henry scored 11 out of 14 attempts. He fell off in the second half, scoring only eight out of 11. Bert Leisenring and Campbell work him from the first line for the purple and white.

St. Vincent's vice president Henry scoring his first attempt at a full toss. Pritchard tied him up with the front line, free line and the second line, we repeated it over and over again and yearning a free kick. Alex Alexander broke away and dribbling at full speed scored from inside the hash. The first was a short lived howler for Lowmyer, but by making two almost in a break. His first shot beat the ball playing along with the rim before it finally fell through.

The Casers then score up to win before overtaken by the Leisenring boys and when the quarter closed the result was 10 to 9 St. Vincent.

The champions, not the lead in the second quarter, momentarily. Then it was tied again at 12 to 12 and also at 13 to 13. Then the Casers took a big lead, the half finally closing 22 to 19. The gap was closed when A. Rusinko towed in a long attempt from the center of the field with such force it finally shook the basket, and Dan Henry netted another within a dead durable. Lowmyer scored twice again in the second quarter, his superior height giving him considerable protection from the small St. Vincent team.

Both teams tightened up their guarding just with the exception of Rusinko, peg from the side not an effort goal was made. Four goals were the scoring medium and Referee Snell was calling the illegal plays closely. Three personal fouls were called on members of the Green team and one on the Caser quintet.

The Casers led in the second half. The Casers led in the second half. Henry got a foul shot in a row when the Caser team brought an additional penalty. Shortly afterwards Caser lost in opportunity to toss a foul by taking 12 seconds for the try instead of the 10 allowed by the rules.

St. Vincent took a one point lead on a foul toss and Campbell tied this.

Then Riley was substituted and when he tried to report to the referee the Casers suffered another penalty.

Henry making the attempt count. The lead was again only of short duration. Campbell dropping his second attempt through the basket. Once more the Leisenring passers got the edge by scoring a foul goal and even again Campbell did the heroic act by tying up. He had made three points foul shots and each was greeted with thin-crowd cheers by the Caser backers. Then Dan Henry made the score which won the game for his team when he dropped through the foul toss which brought the St. Vincent total to 29.

There were still some minutes to play when the Green score the 29th point but the desperate efforts of the Casers were unavailing. Friends of the St. Vincent contingent could not help but admire the great fight the knights of Columbus put up to let a basket which would give them in the lead. Captain Pike, Flores, dove in into a tornado of action and by this time started magnificently driving down the floor only to be met by the stalwart defense of St. Vincent. The Casers simply could not get through. The green guards rose to the occasion and did their best work those last few minutes when the strong local boys felt their chance for a championship slipping and drew on their greatest efforts to keep in the running.

It seemed that defeat had been driven off temporarily when Referee Snell set aside the St. Vincent quintet. The green ones which had tied the ball as it was Campbell had the line. Plainly he was the greatest burden and the howl of Casers was pinned and his ability. He had not failed to score. In all the previous attempts, this was not "up" that the goal post had to be avoided. Campbell poised his timing of the shot perfectly being perfect. It started a little to one side struck the rim at bounded off. The game ended a few seconds later and St. Vincent was champion.

The line up: St. Vincent—29; Casers—28.

MOUNT PLEASANT LEGION WILL MARK
SOLDIER GRAVES

Also Will Be Secured Toward Permanent Stones for War Dead.

APRIL 11, 1894, RECALLED

Special to The Courier.
MOUNT PLEASANT, April 11.—Captain James Zundell Post, The American Legion, will erect 30 markers on the graves of deceased comrades. The markers are similar to those used on graves of the Civil War veterans. They will be furnished by the county commissioners. Any person wishing to erect a permanent marker for any member of a family who was either killed in the World War or who was a World War veteran and died, will get in touch with the post the $15 needed toward a permanent marker by the county commissioners will be secured for the family by the post members. Later arrangements will be made for assisting the G. A. R. veterans with the observance of Memorial Day.

An exhibition in the S. Z. Zimmerman Company's window is a photograph taken in Mount Pleasant on April 11, 1894, showing the trees bending over with snow and the ground covered with a heavy blanket of snow. On account of the temperature yesterday the photograph occasioned much comment.

Child Dies.

Mary Rosina Millsagle, six years old, died Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Millsagle of Bridgeport street. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. E. Erbe at the home of the parents this afternoon.

The State Department of Health is offering an opportunity to all pupils of the fourth grade of the Third ward school to have their mouths carefully examined and charted. This work is being done as a demonstration. The object is to put the children's teeth in a perfectly clean condition. In addition to the cleaning of the mouths a dentist of the State Department of Health will fit all decayed teeth and will extract where necessary if the parents so desire.

Neglect of the teeth leads to many other ills later. The teachers of the schools and the parents are invited to come to the clinic and see the work done.

Rev. Erbe at Elizabeth.

Rev. J. B. Erbe has been called to Elizabeth to make the address Wednesday at the funeral of George W. Hayden. Mr. Hayden was an aged man and for a number of years a deacon of the First Baptist Church at Elizabeth and a former parishioner of Rev. Erbe.

Vanderbilt

VANDERBILT, April 11.—James Herbert of Franklin was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Herbert of Connellsville over Saturday. Mrs. J. E. Lynn of Franklin was transacting business in Connellsville Saturday.

Mack McLain spent the week-end with his family at Smithfield.

Harry Gray of Fayette City spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson.

Mrs. C. H. Beall and Miss Bess Dunlap have returned home from Pittsburgh where they attended the missionary rally at Emory Methodist Episcopal Church.

Henry Cramer, who has been ill with grip, is able to be out again.

A SWEET LITTLE BABY BOY

Makes a Bright Spot in Every Home. A Comfort in Years to Come

Park Rapids, Minnesota.—"I have taken your medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—when I was a girl for pains and before and after my periods. I now have a sweet little baby boy and will send you his picture if you wish to publish it. My sisters also take your medicine and find it a great help, and I recommend it to those who suffer before their babies are born."—Mrs. Wm. Johnson, Box 155, Park Rapids, Minn.

To marry and arrive at middle age without children is a great disappointment to many women. Think of the joy and comfort other women have in their children as they grow older.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped to bring great happiness to many families by restoring women to health. Often the childless home is due to the poor condition of the wife, which may be helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It brought health and happiness into the home of Mrs. Johnson. # Easter Modes —the glory of them as you find them here!

APPAREL not only bespeaks the taste of the wearer but often indicates the respect that the wearer holds for those with whom she associates. The careless dresser values little the good opinion of those whom she sees day by day. There you have a thought that adds much to the attractiveness of our display of Easter Apparel.

For not only will these suits and caps and coats and dresses bring it about that your Easter will be a happy—and a stylish—one but they will continue serving you month after month and marking you as a woman of good taste.

There is only this week left to see them—and they have never been more glorious. Designers have surpassed themselves in adapting Parisian fancies to American needs. The fabrics are unusually beautiful. The mode can be daring or demure—just as you please.

You're welcome here, any time, any day.

Newer Tweed Suits

Every woman with young ideas will at least want to look at the latest arrivals in Tweed Suits. New, smart, youthful—and therefore popular for shopping, business and travel or for the vast cycle of Sports Wear, they easily win their way into a woman's heart. All of them are cool, and beautifully lined in silk of a shade to contrast with the body of the garment. And they have the trig box jacket that is enjoying such a vogue this season. Priced $25 up.

Lace Comes Into Its Own Trimming Smart Frocks

The graciousness of filmy lace is so becoming that it is used in combination with many different materials this season. All with equal effectiveness. You find it employed to form the body of a frock or as a trimming in any one of a hundred places. Easter frocks in Canton Crepe, Taffeta, Crepe Falie, Crepe Romaine and Tricotine display quaint and bizarre details that stamp them smarkest and most individual even in this season of most interesting clothes. Priced $19.75 to $85.

Tweed Coats in Imported Materials $35-$39.75

They have an air that is distinctly international. Their materials are from England—they were tailored in America—and they have an enviable Parisian flare. These Tweeds show novel effects in weaving with bright little flecks appearing here and there throughout the body of the cloth. Tailored as they are with a manly raglan shoulder and sturdy belt you'll find them more than merely becoming. And you'll like their reasonable price.

Paris Approves of Suits in Navy Blue $25 up

Not that Paris' say so makes so very much difference in this instance—for a strictly tailored suit in Navy is something that few women on this side of the water care to be without. They are shown in a comfortable variety of mode this season so that no matter what effect you seek there is surely to be a garment here to achieve it for you. Careful workmanship distinguishes them all. $25 up.

RHEUMATISM— SWOLLEN KNEES

Quickly Surrendered to This Remarkable Treatment.

Dunbar and Miss Carroll of Uniontown were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Beers.

J. C. McGinn and son, Donald, were McKeesport visitors Saturday.

The house of Ewing Galley of Franklin township is getting well under way. The foundation has been completed and the frame raised.

Mrs. J. W. Brower and Mrs. Edward Rollings were Pittsburg visitors Saturday.

Miss Gladys Laughrey, clerk in the Dickerson Run yard office, is off duty on account of sickness.

George Moore of New Geneva spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Sarah Moore.

Alverton

ALVERTON, April 10.—The register showed 189 present at Sunday school Sunday at the Church of God. Each Sunday seems to get nearer the 200 goal, for which the school is striving.

Next Sunday is Easter and each class is working for 100 per cent attendance. Five classes had 100 per cent attendance April 2 and three classes had a perfect record April 9.

The Ruffdale Athletic Association has decided to change the location of the diamond at that place. Last year it was along the road in front of the Hockey Garage, but this year it will be moved into the field further, and be the reverse of last season.

Clifford Adams has purchased a touring car with which to deliver his goods to Scotland.

Edward Lewis of East Liberty was a recent Connellsville caller.

Mrs. Edna Scott and son, James, of

The Trifles That Make a Perfect Easter

THEY may be for ourselves—to complete the Easter outfit. Or they may be intended for another as a little Easter gift. Whatever you need Wright-Metzler Store has it ready for you—gloves, hosiery, neckwear, toys, stationery, Easter cards, Easter flowers—anything you can imagine.

Gift Boxes Will Be Provided With Any Purchases You Make This Week.

New Sport Hose Are $1.50 Pair

And they're absolutely necessary if you've bought a Tweed suit and almost as necessary with any other costume.

Made of silk and lisle in two shades—nude (à la champagne) and a clever grey mixture that looks a lot like a plain Tweed.

You can put a mark on the credit side of the ledger when they're as reasonable as $1.50.

The Latest Girdles Made of Beads

Any sort of beads—cut steel, jet, wood or any of the other varieties that bead makers have conjured up this season. And they are used either alone or in combinations.

Many of them reflect light in a charming manner giving the effect of moonlight on the water. And all of them will be almighty becoming with either frock or wrap.

Prices range $2.50 to $7.50.—Main Floor.

Easter Petticoats are $2.50 to $12.75

And they can be just as colorful as any other part of the Easter ensemble.

For they come in silk and jersey in silver, copper, henna, purple, American Beauty, ivory and brown.

Of course they're being worn this season—since even a flapper finds a use for them when she ventures forth in a sheer silk frock.

—Second Floor

Lingerie for Easter Is $2.75 to $4.95

Particularly fetching are new and modish vests in orchid and canary yellow—striking as they do a novel note for Spring.

This idea of colored lingerie is something that is fresh from France.

The vests are $2.95 to $3.95.

Flesh colored bloomers, ideal for Easter wear are $4.95.

—Second Floor.

Easter Waists Begin at $2.50

With Tuxedo and Peter Pan collars, dainty insertions and trimming of real fllet.

At $3.95 the cool effect of sheer materials is heightened by a trimming touch of gingham or wide bands of colored material on collar and cuffs.

Both types are very attractive.—See them if you can.
